

BOARD HIGH LIGHTS

Board Highlights for the East Central Francophone Meeting November 24, 2020

Financial Statements 2019-2020

Pierre Bergeron, of Bergeron & Co, presented the audited financial statements for the year 2019-2020. Revenues were $17,259,209, expenses were $16,918,985, leaving a surplus of $340,224 which was attributed to the accumulated deficit of $ 387,803.

Educational Annual Results

The report on annual results in education must consider, this year, a very specific situation due to Covid-19 and home learning from March 2020 to June 2020. Principals and teachers have been successful to adapt their teaching with the pursuit of their development in technology, of the transcription of lessons to a different model while having at heart the success but especially the mental health of the students and their families.

Trustees Reports

Trustee Natalie Béland attended the Annual General Meeting of Fédération des conseils scolaires francophones de l'Alberta (FCSFA) as well as the one at the Alberta Catholic School Trustees Association (ACSTA). Mario Gagné and Natalie Béland attended the Alberta School Boards Association (ASBA) Fall General Meeting held online. Réginald Roy was re-elected as president of the FCSFA for another year.

2021 School Board Elections

In preparation for the next school board elections, which will take place in the fall of 2021, the board has appointed Virginie Dallaire as returning officer and Isabelle Poulin as substitute returning officer.

Administrative Procedures

Always with a view to improving itself and offering the best to its employees, parents and students, the Center-Est school board has revised its administrative procedures on copyright and harassment. A directive on electronic surveillance has also been created. Please do not hesitate to consult the council's website for more details.

Appreciation Card

The Center-Est school board received a thank you card from the École du Sommet, as well as kind words from the staff of the other schools for the leave granted on November 12 and 13. It gave school staff, students and parents a rest.

Next Board Meeting

The Council will hold a working session on December 15, 2020. The next CSCE Board meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 26, 2021.
