WILDFIRES

Wildfires

Wildfires burning throughout Alberta continue to have significant effects. A number of resources are available to help keep Alberta's workers healthy and safe.

Alberta OHS has several resources on occupational health and safety considerations related to wildfires, including a bulletin on wildfire smoke that explains how this workplace hazard can be controlled. To access all of these wildfire resources, visit ohs-pubstore.labour.alberta.ca/wildfire.

Visit the Alberta Wildfire website to get information about current fire restrictions and fire bans, as well as learn more about wildfire prevention and operations. The website also includes a link to Alberta's Wildfire Status Dashboard, which provides a map of the current locations of wildfires in Alberta, including information on which fires are out of control.

For the latest information on road closures, visit 511 Alberta. Additionally, a forecast map showing where the smoke from wildfires is headed is available at firesmoke.ca/forecasts/current.
